This year's LENS carries the theme of smiles throughout the book. Smiles and having a good time are part of education, and soon will be the biggest part of our memories.

Many hours of hard work were put into this book, but through it all, the fun we had will forever remind us of our final year at North.

Without the help of many people, this book would never have been published. To the endless number of persons supporting us, we the LENS STAFF, say thank you.

Keep smiling,

Melanie Reed

BUCKEYE GIRL'S STATE

K. Plavac

C. Schmitz, K. Andrus

C. Ivancic, L. Brewster

Each high school in the state of Ohio is permitted to send delegates chosen from the student body to Girls' and Boys' State. This action creates a body of high school students who experiment with government in a democratic system, which allows the group to choose their own leaders and govern themselves in a miniature state.

Rangers crush Brush to stay atop GCC race

By REGIONAL PRESS

Eastlake North increased its lead Tuesday over Idle Mentor in the Greater Cleveland Conference girls' basketball race by thrashing host Brush, 71-32.

North is 9-1 overall and 7-0 in GCC play. Mentor, which had its scheduled game against Euclid postponed due to bad weather, is 5-0 in the GCC.

A trio of North players scored in double figures as Brush trailed after every quarter.

Judy Ferra tossed in 17 points for the winner, while Bev Brakefield had 14 and Carol Dugan 10. Julie Schuld topped Brush with 12 markers.

Willoughby South increased its GCC mark to 4-2 by upending visiting Mayfield, 56-39.

Kathy Malainy scored 24 points and grabbed 12 rebounds for South, which overcame a 12-10 first quarter deficit. Terri Moore chipped in with 10 points, while Kathy Cassese had eight points and 12 rebounds. Jodi Kest netted 23 points to lead Mayfield.

North girls lead GCC

By REGIONAL PRESS

Due to a mix-up in schedules, Eastlake North finds itself atop the standings all alone today in Greater Cleveland Conference girls' basketball.

North upped its GCC record to 5-0 Tuesday with a 46-25 decision over Mayfield, while Mentor remained at 4-0 when its game with Brush was postponed due to a mix-up in understanding on where the game was to be played.

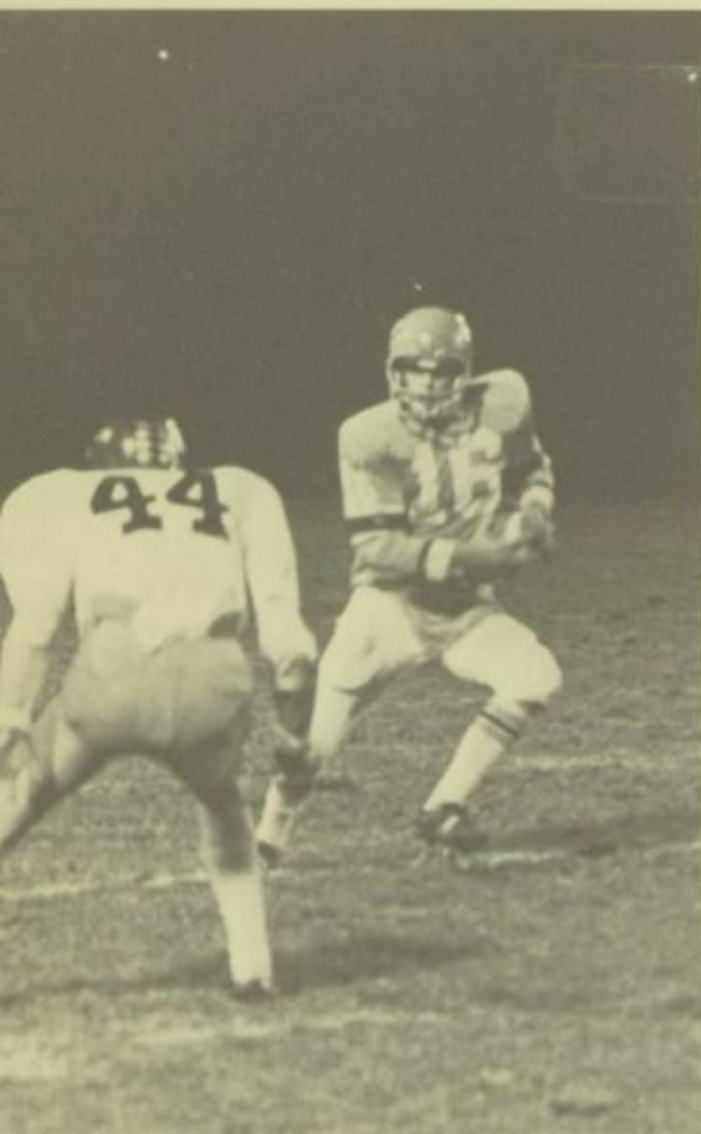

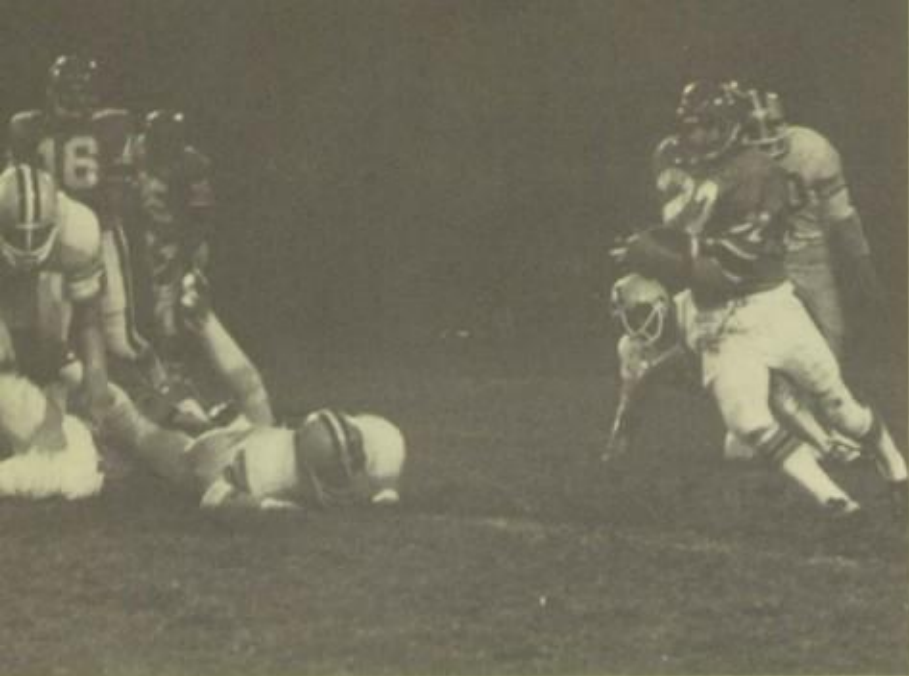

Other girls' activity Tuesday saw Willoughby South crush Maple Hts., 45-18.

North broke out of a 4-4 first period deadlock with Mayfield with a 12-point second period that left the Rangers in front at half-time by a 16-9 margin. After a fairly even third period, North wrapped it up with a 20-point final quarter.

Carol Dugan led the Rangers, now 6-1 overall, with a 20-point effort, while Barb Jaksa chipped in with 14 markers.

South jumped off to a 25-4 halftime lead against Maple Hts. and never looked back in upping its GCC record to 3-1.

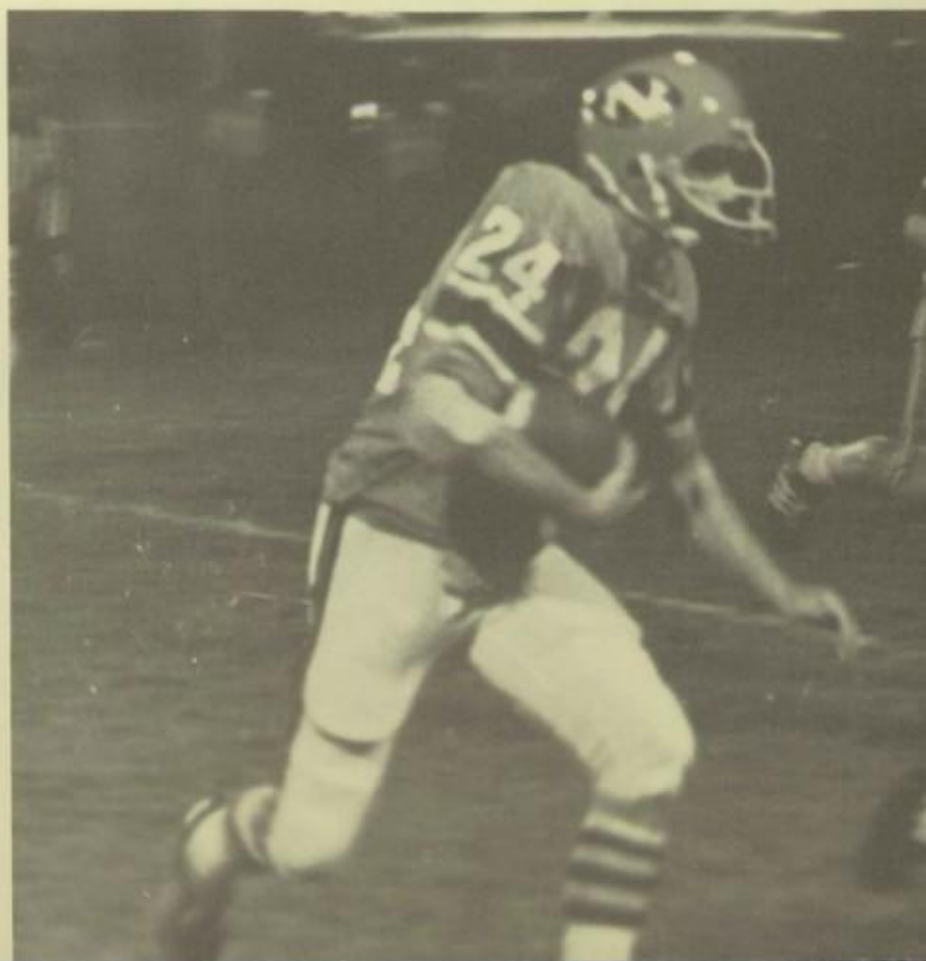

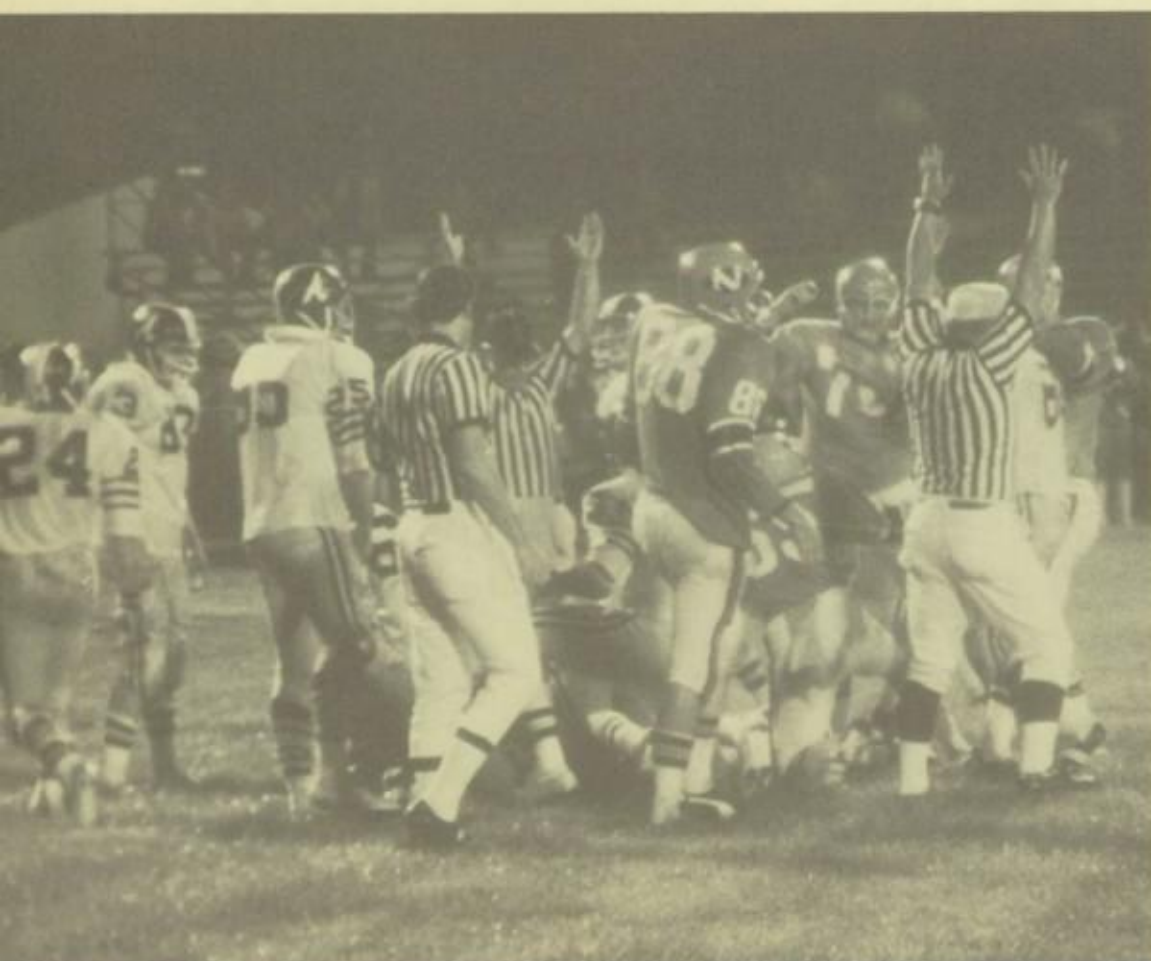

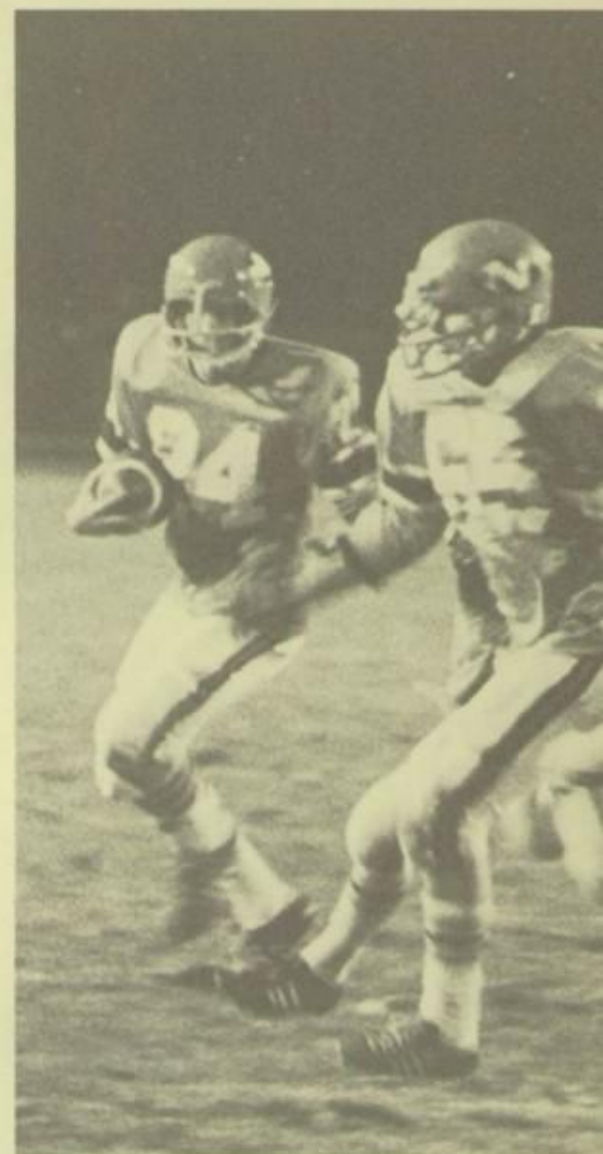

Chris Lonchar led the Rebels with 18 points, while Diane Geneva chipped in with 10.

THAT SCHOOL WAS MY FRIEND

Trudging down the road to your bus stop,
Seeing faces new and old,
Took two years to get to the top,
And oh you feel so old.

Year after year it's the same one,
You go there every day,
It's your Senior year and it's almost done,
And now you want it to stay.

When you're a sophomore, you're not smart,
That's what Seniors and Juniors think of you,
But deep down in your heart,
You know next year you'll be thinking it too!

And when you're a Junior you're in the middle,
But you really don't seem to mind,
To Seniors you play second fiddle,
But after their graduation you start your climb.

But your Senior year is the saddest time,
It's almost over I know,
And all the memories which are mine,
Will never leave me, will never go.

And all the times I wished it would end,
And the teachers all go away,
I never thought it would be like this my friend,
I want so badly to stay.

In my heart I really love this school,
And if you're a Sophomore or Junior,
You may think me some kind of a fool,
But wait until you are a Senior!

And I can look back and remember,
Many years from now till my life's end,
How I went here in the warm of June and cold of December,
And I can say, "That school was my companion,
that school was my friend!"
